

Wire Harness/Cable Assembler Job Description

Fast growing interconnect contract manufacture is now searching for dedicated, hardworking individuals to build our wire harness, cable assembly and custom box build products.

Duties Include:

- Ability to read and follow wire harness assembly instructions
- Ability to gather materials and tooling necessary to perform work in an organized manner
- Routes, wires, and assembles electronic components using wire layout boards
- Numerous hand assembly operations based on detailed instructions
- Operate semi-automatic equipment such as crimp presses, wire twisters and wire strippers
- Conducts functional and continuity tests of wire harnesses and cable assemblies using friendly test fixtures
- Use of a solder iron to solder wires to switches or connectors
- Perform visual and dimensional inspections of in-process assemblies and finished products
- Wire harness assembly experience highly preferred

Qualification and Skills:

- Has assembly/production experience and a strong mechanical aptitude
- Motivated and detail oriented
- Attention to detail, excellent hand dexterity
- Proficient in basic math skills
- Possesses good communication skills and a great attitude

Essential Job Functions:

- Ability to stand while working
- Lifting Requirements: Exerting up to 20 pounds of force frequently, and/or a negligible amount of force constantly to move objects.
- Ability to distinguish colored wires for accurate assembly purposes
- Ability to handle small parts
- Pull/push motion up to 10lbs frequently